

LIBERTY

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Shelton, who live near Millport, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. T. W. Youngblood.

Miss Florence Duncan entertained a number of her friends with a party on Wednesday night.

Among the business visitors at Millport, last week, were Messrs. T. W. Youngblood, Raymond Guin, H. G. Carpenter and Frederick Smith.

Professor and Mrs. J. L. Woodward are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine little daughter in their home.

Mrs. Silas Fields visited relatives near Millport last week.

Mrs. E. F. Manning spent Saturday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Atkins.

Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Taylor and Mrs. Hattie Redus spent Wednesday very pleasantly in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Atkins.

Messrs. Maurice and Russell Bell, who are attending the Liberty High School, spent the week-end with their parents in Ethelville.

Mr. Paul Redus and sister, Miss

Norma, students in the Liberty High School, spent the last week-end at home.

Mrs. L. D. Atkins and little son, Hilman, spent Friday very pleasantly with Mrs. J. P. Atkins.

Mrs. Thomas Coons has been very sick, but has improved some. Her mother, Mrs. Ruffin, has been staying at her bedside during her illness.

Mr. J. P. Atkins made a business trip to Melbourne last Friday.

Gladys, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bud McDill, died of pneumonia last Monday. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the lonely parents.

Miss Annie Mae Jaynes, who was so unfortunate a short time ago as to suffer the fracture of one of her lower limbs, is rapidly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Joyner and Miss Elizabeth Joyner visited Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Gibson, of the Forrest section, Sunday.

The teachers of the Liberty School had an excellent program on Washington's Birthday. At the conclusion of the program, an impressive talk was made by the Rev. G. B. Taylor.

A number of visitors were present.

Miss Juanita Cooper, who has been seriously ill of pneumonia, is rapidly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Atkins and little daughters, Oleta and Murrel, spent Thursday night in the home of Mrs. Hattie Redus.

The grim messenger of death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rickman, last week, and robbed them of their baby.

Messrs. Cecil and Homer Atkins and two of their friends from Columbus were visitors in this community one day last week.

It has been several years since I wrote to the Dispatch and tho I'm not a very gifted writer, I'm back to tell the news for Liberty again. Wonder how many will recognize me.

The health of our community has been excellent this winter until now. We are sorry to hear of several being sick.

Miss Jaunita Cooper is very sick with pneumonia. We hope she will soon be well and back at school again.

The little son of Prof. and Mrs. L. L. Self is on the sick list. We wish for him an early recovery.

The boys of Liberty were very much disappointed because Mt. Vernon failed to come to play basketball Friday afternoon. Altho they got up a team of school boys to play the high school boys and they did them about what they expected to do. Mt. Vernon won about 20 points. They expect to go to Carrollton next Friday for a game.

Mrs. Fenton Smith and little daughter, Margie, of Birmingham, are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Williams and children visited relatives here recently.

Mr. William Watkins made a business trip to Millport Friday.

Messrs. T. W. Youngblood, R. A. Dowdle and Miles Wright attended conference at Tuscaloosa last week.

Mr. Frank Wright who has been working in Columbus for some time is at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Wright.

Messrs. T. W. Youngblood, Louis Atkins and Daniel Youngblood made a business trip to Columbus, Saturday.

Messrs. Fred Smith, Orin Randall and Clayton Atkins were out joy-riding Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Coleman Patrick motored to Columbus, Saturday.

Mrs. R. H. Duncan and daughter, Miss Florra, visited Mrs. R. D. Cooper, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Louis Atkins and little son, Hilman, spent Saturday very pleasantly in the home of her mother, Mrs. T. W. Youngblood.

After a pleasant call on Miss Alice Croll, one of the Liberty school teachers, Messrs. Winston Dowdle and Fred Smith found that some of the boys had had their fun taking the wheels off of Mr. Dowdle's buggy and the saddle off of Mr. Smith's horse.

Several of the boys of this community were out bird hunting Saturday.

Miss Annie Mae Jaynes had the misfortune of getting her leg broke recently. We hope she will soon recover.

Mr. R. A. Dowdle made a trip to Columbus for the purpose of furnishing his store last week.

Mr. Okley Atkins spent Saturday night in the home of his sister, Mrs. E. F. Manning.

Mr. J. P. Atkins had a misfortune of losing a fine milk cow last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Swartz and baby of Bell's mill, visited in the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McReynolds, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ferguson and sons, Price and Molloy, spent the day in the home of Mr. Will McReynolds, Saturday.

Mr. F. W. Youngblood will soon be ready to move his saw mill.

Mrs. Sallie Land and son, Madison, visited her sister, Mrs. Hamby, Saturday.

We are glad to note that Dr. G. E. Spruill is able to do some practice again.

Mr. I. C. Atkins visited his mother, Mrs. Hattie Redus, Saturday, and was sorry to find her sick. We hope she will soon be well again.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Lacy made a trip to Columbus recently.

Mr. Frank Wright spent Thursday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murray McManus.

Mrs. Mamie Taggart spent one day last week with Mrs. R. D. Cooper.

Mrs. Lacy and daughter, Miss Parrie, who have been staying in the home of Mr. D. M. Lacy for some time have returned to their home in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Clemmons visited Mr. and Mrs. Jim Logan Saturday night.

Mrs. D. M. Lacy spent Friday with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Duncan.

Miss Lillie Bell Jaynes spent several days last week with Miss Annie Mae James.

Mr. Jim Coons was a visitor in Millport last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Vasser spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Holloman.

Mr. Murray McManus transacted business in Millport one day last week.

Miss Laudie McCullough spent the past week with Miss Mary Stokes.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Foster spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Stokes recently.

Prof. and Mrs. Lee Kellum spent last Sunday with Prof. and Mrs. James T. Smith.

Mr. T. W. Youngblood and son, Daniel, attended the quarterly meeting at Forrest last Sunday.

Prof. L. L. Self and Misses Moyzelle Boyette and Alice Croll motored to Columbus, Saturday.

Messrs. Irene Hodge and Lizzie Manning visited Miss Jaunita Cooper Saturday afternoon.

The young people enjoyed a singing in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Youngblood, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. J. W. Eeds visited Mr. T. T. Joyner, Saturday.

Miss Lizzie Joyner was shopping in Columbus, Saturday.

Messrs. Wright and Bonus of Birmingham, spent Wednesday night in the home of Mr. J. W. Ferguson.

Little Mildred Bennet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bennet has been on the sick list.

Prof. and Mrs. L. L. Self and little son, Roy, Jr., was pleasant visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Joyner, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davidson are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter. May she ever be a source of pleasure to her parents and brothers.

Dr. W. S. Bell spent Thursday afternoon with Mr. T. T. Joyner.

Mrs. Glen Redus and little son spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Shelton.

Miss Ella Thornbrough spent several days with Miss Vesta Eeds, recently.

Mr. Jim Sansing is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Joyner.

Rev. L. N. Hartsfield filled his regular appointment at Andrew Chapel, tended the service and enjoyed the Sunday morning. A large crowd attended.

Mr. and Mrs. William Watkins spent Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Vassar.

The Epworth League at Liberty, Sunday night, was conducted by Mr. Osie Smith. The service was opened by several songs, conducted by Prof. T. A. Cole. Some good reading and talks were made by Prof. Leo Kellum.

Messrs. T. W. Youngblood, Edward Brown, Miles Wright and Misses Flora Redus and Mabon Spruill. Several sistance prayers were rendered and a special song by T. W. Youngblood.

Prof. L. Kellum and T. A. Cole and Miss Irene Hodge. A large crowd attended and all seemed to enjoy the service.

We are proud to say we have young people who will stand up for the right and do anything they are called on to do in public for good and also we are glad to know that while at District Conference at Tuscaloosa last week, Mr. Miles Wright got license to preach. Three men, two of this community and another formerly of this community have been licensed to preach in one year's time. Where is a better record?

BARBARA.

FAYETTE, ALA.

Route One

Mr. William Roberts and family spent the day very pleasantly last Sunday in the home of Mr. W. A. Shepherd.

A good sermon was delivered last Sunday morning at the Pilgrims' Rest Church by the Rev. Frank Wilson.

Misses Ada and Rennie Shepherd were guests of Misses Jessie and Alice Freeman last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Zeller and Mr. Launth Hughes were there also.

Mr. Thurston Horne and Mr. Bud Foster spent last Sunday afternoon very pleasantly with Mr. Burrol Shepherd.

Mr. Monroe Shepherd and family were guests of Mr. Vandiver Porter and wife a few days ago.

The party at Mr. Lee Plyler's, a few nights ago, was very much enjoyed by a large crowd.

Misses Dollie and Amy Foster were recent guests of Miss Bessie Plyler.

Miss Arline Shepherd spent Sunday with Miss Elizabeth Plyler.

Mr. Clinton Alexander and family were guests of Mr. D. Belk the last week-end.

Mr. Clinton Livingston and family spent Sunday night with Mr. Delbert Freeman and family.

The singing at Mr. Bud Cooper's on last Sunday night was greatly enjoyed by a large crowd.

Mrs. Lora Shepherd and her two little children spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Leller Shepherd.

Mrs. Della Freeman was a guest of Mrs. Maude Owens on Friday.

Mrs. Leller Shepherd and little son spent Friday with Mr. Bud Owens and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Freeman and Mrs. Nancy Owens and little Leonard Shepherd spent Tuesday in Fayette.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Atkins spent Monday night at Mr. S. R. Owens home.

We regret to learn that Mr. Chas. Andrews and family have moved out of this community. They are now living on Mr. Lee Plyler's place. We hope they will like their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Foster spent Thursday in Fayette.

Mr. Victor Freeman and Mr. Felts Shepherd made a business trip to Kennedy, Ala., Friday.

Messrs. Henry and Vandiver Porter made a business trip to Fayette, Ala., Saturday.

Mr. Vandiver Porter and wife spent Saturday night and Sunday night at the home of Mr. W. A. Shepherd.

Mrs. Leller Shepherd and children were recent guests of Mr. Harvey Livingston and family.

Mr. S. R. Owens and Mr. Clinton Livingston made a business trip to Kennedy, Ala., Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Porter visited Mr. O. H. White and family, a few days ago, at Fayette, Ala.

Miss Kathryn and Miss Dollie Belk and Mrs. Vena Belk spent Thursday afternoon with Mr. W. H. Porter and family.

Mrs. Minnie Porter was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Lou Foster, on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Davis have returned from a visit with relatives at Coven, Ala.

Miss Retta Mae Shepherd was a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. Porter.

Mr. William Adman made a business trip to Belk, Ala., Saturday.

JENNIE JUNE.

A PRESENT HELP

The writer: Listen, old man, can you loan me a ten spot? I don't get my salary until tomorrow.

The artist: Sorry, old top, but I haven't a nickel. I got mine yesterday.

OAK RIDGE

Mr. J. M. Vaughan was a business visitor in Columbus a few days ago.

Miss Mattie Lee Vaughan was a guest of Mrs. William Parker on Monday.

Mr. Hunter Jernigan was a business visitor in Columbus a few days ago.

Mr. James Simpson was a recent business visitor in Columbus.

Mr. R. D. Wiggins was among the business visitors in Columbus Monday.

Mr. Roy Egger was a recent business visitor in Columbus.

Mr. Herman Egger passed through our section, Monday, with his pea thresher. Mr. Egger has threshed a number of crops of peas lately.

Mr. Frank Rye is busily engaged on his saw mill near Kolola Springs. He hopes to have his mill ready to saw up the timber in a short time.

We are greatly pleased to hear that Mrs. Samuel Honnoll is rapidly regaining her strength, and we hope to see her out soon. Mrs. Honnoll is pleasantly remembered as Miss Florence Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Andrews, of this section.

Mr. L. B. Lawrence was a business visitor in the Prairie section Tuesday.

Hon. J. A. Dale has returned from Meridian, where he went last week to attend the Masonic Grand Lodge.

Mrs. Zack Ellis, of West Point, was a guest, Tuesday, of Mrs. Clarence Dale.

Dupree Wood and Elsie Honnoll were recent visitors in the beautiful city of Aberdeen.

The many friends of Mr. Thomas Jones and family will be glad to know that they are moving back to this section from Pike County.

Mr. J. H. Propst and Mr. C. M. Reeves, of Columbus, were Caledonia visitors on Wednesday.

Mr. J. M. Connor, of the Border Springs community, was a business visitor in Caledonia, Wednesday.

Mr. Samuel Dale and family and Mrs. Zack Ellis spent Thursday with relatives in the Flint Hill section.

Dr. Emmett M. Jamieson was a business visitor in Columbus Friday.

Mr. Jefferson Andrews spent Friday in Columbus.

Mr. Thomas Lavender spent Friday in Aberdeen.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wood and little son, of "Splivinsville," were visiting relatives in this section Saturday and Sunday.

We are very glad to have Mrs. S. Honnoll back to her home in the Caledonia section, after an absence of three weeks at the Columbus Hospital, where she underwent a serious operation. She stood the ordeal fine, and is on the road to recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hartness and little son, of Starkville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Andrews, of the Oak Ridge section, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Selma Dale, one of the bright students of the Mississippi State College for Women, of Columbus, was the week-end guest of her parents in the Caledonia section.

The fine party given in the home of Mr. Wilson Partain, Friday night, was very much enjoyed by all those present.

If any man or woman in this section is desirous of subscribing for the Columbus Dispatch, the best paper in the South, or if any person wishes to renew their subscription, please let me act as agent. I will certainly appreciate your kindness.

TEMPEST.

NEWS TO US

Atty-Gen. Dougherty says that there has been a heavy reduction in rents throughout the country. But folks in these parts will not believe the rumor until they read it in the Commercial and the Dispatch both.

Gulf States Steel Company's Standard Wire and nails—

$3.25 base per keg.

Complete stock of wire fencing.

Just received car of Shelcote roofing; all grades.

Get my prices and save money.

THOS. J. LOCKE
Wholesale Grocer

FERNBANK

Messrs. Tom Cash, D. W. Cunningham, Mrs. D. W. Cunningham and Mrs. C. Robertson spent Friday in Columbus.

Mr. J. Seay spent the week-end visiting relatives in Birmingham.

Mr. C. A. Crimm spent one day in Columbus attending business this week.

Messrs. John and Jeff Blanton spent Wednesday at Millport.

Mrs. H. H. Fleming spent Thursday at Millport.

Mr. P. G. Hodo spent several days of the week at Greenwood Springs.

Dr. M. R. Seay spent a couple of days at Vernon early in the week.

Mr. Earl Crimm was a visitor at Millport Saturday.

Misses Maud Hall and Velma Dodson, our teachers, left for their homes at Gordo and Covin Wednesday. They made many friends while here who regret to give them up.

Miss Effie May Hicks is visiting Mrs. L. L. Jones near Covin this week.

Judge and Mrs. Tom Mattox, of Vernon, were week-end visitors of Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Seay.

Miss Mary Ussery is visiting her cousin, Miss Reba Ussery, for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Josh Crimm and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Early Crimm, Sunday.

Dr. G. S. Barksdale was called to Millport Saturday on professional business.

Mrs. Joe Tomlin and children of near Vernon spent Wednesday night with her mother, Mrs. G. A. Kemp.

Mr. W. A. Richman spent Thursday in Columbus.

Dr. M. R. Seay was called to Berry Sunday to see the aged father of Mrs. Seay, who has blood-poison from a small splinter under his finger nail a few days ago.

Good-bye kisses are taboo in Chicago railway stations because they delay trains. They figure a kiss is as good as a mile.—Life.

Used Fords

Bargains - Bargains
Part Cash—Balance
Easy Payments

Touring Car, self starter, in A-1 condition, new body...$300.00

Touring Car, self starter, newly painted...$275.00

Touring Car, self starter, good condition...$250.00

Touring Car, self starter $225.00

Roadster, self starter, newly painted...$200.00

Roadster, self starter, newly painted...$200.00

Touring Car, non starter $125.00

Touring Car, non starter $110.00

Roadster, non starter...$140.00

Roadster, non starter...$100.00

These Cars all in good running condition.

Part Cash.

Terms on balance.

Columbus Auto

Company

Columbus Storage Battery Company

PHONE
4

103 College Ave.

PHONE
4

Columbus, Miss.

MARCH--
Back to Nature

With spring in the air, many people are inclined to think that the indoor reading months are past.

Nevertheless we have Books for the Golfer, the Automoblist, the Tennis Player, the Hiker, the Camper, the Swimmer, the Fisherman, the professional and amateur gardener.

Buy a Book a Week

Books Make Your Outdoor Life More Enjoyable.

DIVELBISS

Columbus, Miss.

Here's a Real Bargain

Two Dwellings and Barn on Military Road with about Half a City Block for $3,500

This Property cost Owner $4,800 and this low price is made for quick acceptance

Can be bought part cash, balance 6 per cent on deferred payments

MISSISSIPPI INVESTMENT & INSURANCE CORPORATION

Odd Fellows Building.

Phone 531.

JESSE P. WOODWARD, President.
JULIAN B. HOPKINS, Vice-President and Treas.
ROBERT P. ALSTON, Secretary.